16. COVID-19 Test, Trace & Protect information

- Attendance at funerals is by invitation only.
- Please record and retain a list of names and contact information for all those invited.
- Appoint an 'usher' to check people in at the entrance using the list.
- Remind everyone to keep the required 2m distance.

The reason for this is to comply with Government requirements for Test, Trace, Protect information. These details should be made available to NHS should the need arise. A format for recording your funeral attendees is appended.

Your co-operation is much appreciated and helps us to keep you, your family, our staff and our country safe.

Confidentiality:

The information you record and give will be confidential and will only be used by NHS to contain the virus. It will not be shared with other bodies. All information will be held for 21 days after the service and then destroyed.

Declaration:

- I am the applicant, and I agree to share information on attendees directly with NHS should the need arise
- I am the applicant, and I agree that the Funeral Director can, on my behalf share the required information with NHS should the need arise
- I am the applicant, and I do not agree to share information on attendees but agree to be contacted by NHS should the need arise
